- Units, equipped with jet aircraft and training bi-planes, which previously occupied the Chojna (Koenigsberg) airfield, have moved to the interior of Poland and have been replaced by three squadrons of jet bombers direct from the USSR.
- The Polish frontier troops in the Chojna-Cedynia (Zehden) area have again been reinforced. The Polish river police on the frontier take passports from Czech and Polish sailors belonging to vessels which anchor for the night in the Oder River. The passports are returned the following day.
- At Hohenzug, which is situated on both banks of the Bialinek (Bellinchen), opposite Hohensaaten, East Germany, tunnelling appears to be taking place in the mountains. Rails for a narrow-gauge railway have been laid in the vicinity. Work is proceeding at night north of Bellinchen in the yard of the former Markische Sandwerke. Gravel and cement are delivered by boat.
- Between 1 and 25 April 1955 the following vessels passed through the Hohensaaten locks moving in the direction of Szczecin (Stettin):

Five Czech barges with small articles, gravel and machine parts
Five new luggers
Eight new cutters
